Nomination Form - CAA Awards for Distinction

Nominations for Awards for Distinction require letters of support from the nominator that include the nominator's identity, relationship to the nominee, how the nominee's work has affected them, and why the nominee should be recognized for this particular award. It is recommended that nominators contact colleagues, students, and other professional contacts to write their own letters of nomination as well, bearing in mind that only five letters will be considered by the award jury.

Nominations for Awards for Distinction also require a short CV (approximately two-pages) of the nominee. For Lifetime Achievement awards, a web link to a longer version of the CV can be included within the two-page CV. All materials should be sent to cbuckley@collegeart.org.

For award-specific requirements, please visit <http://www.collegeart.org/programs/awards/nominations>. As the requirements vary for each award, please read all instructions carefully.
